Meet Mary Joyce from Tanzania

Mary Joyce borrowed $265 from a micro lending organization supported by the Guerrant Foundation to start a business of her own. She wanted to help her family begin the long climb out of poverty. She owns a very busy little shop which is no bigger than about 8x10 feet near Mt. Kilimanjaro in Tanzania. She sells household goods like detergent, cooking oil, tea, flour, candy, gum, cookies, band aids, toothpaste, sodas, and even condoms. Mary Joyce earns about $13 a day for her efforts of running the shop from 6:00am to 8:00pm. She is pleased to have the money to pay school fees for her children, and she loves the respect she gets as an owner of a business in her community. The Guerrant Foundation has helped nearly 20,000 business owners like Mary Joyce to have a life of dignity.

Your Donations Will Be Matched

100% of donations to the Guerrant Foundation go to help the poorest of the world's poor through small loans of $40 to $400 to start businesses. Terry and Anne Guerrant will match all donations up to $100,000 per year.
